12	Defendant.
13	Offenses charged:
14	production of furnitional decomposition,
15	1
16
17	Date of Detention Hearing: December 16, 2011.
18	The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f),
19	and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth,
20	finds that no condition or combination of conditions which the defendant can meet will
21	reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of any other person
22	and the community.

different states. The information he provided about how long he has lived in this area does not 2 stack up with the U.S. Marshal's investigation. When he was arrested, he claimed to be another person and produced the identification of another person. A search of his residence resulted in 3 the discovery of more identification documents under different names. 5 It is therefore ORDERED: Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the 6 (1) 7 Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable, 8 from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal; 9 (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; 10 11 (3)On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the 12 Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined 13 shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and 14 15 (4) The Clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services 16 Officer. 17 18 DATED this 16th day of December, 2011. 19 20 BRIAN A.
